AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF
FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, Also Known As The
George Lincoln Rockwell Party

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963 issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses;" second "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party;" third "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda;" and fourth "the attainment of power through the voters of the newly-won masses."

On February 17, 1964, Karl Rogers Allen, Jr., former Deputy National Commander of the ANP, advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is now well into the third phase. Allen said, however, in his opinion, Rockwell has only completed phase one.

By JOHN DOUGLAS

Herald-Examiner Staff Writer

Mayor Sam Yorty today called for a federal probe of student unrest here and claimed he has evidence a Communist conspiracy is triggering many acts of violence.

The mayor released a report, documented by photographs, in support of his request for a full-scale inquiry to establish origin of campus and other disorders.

The report was five months in preparation by Yorty's staff. Part of it declares:

"A large number of recent Los Angeles area demonstrations, including outbreaks of student body unrest on campuses, have been masterminded, instigated, and sponsored by identified and known Communist Party members and Communist Party front organizations as part of a national and international Communist pattern seeking to promote urban violence and social turmoil."

Spokesmen for the mayor said that the report had been prepared with the cooperation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, intelligence officers of the Los Angeles Police Department, and the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

On the basis of his investigation, Yorty urged a federal inquiry focused on Students for a Democratic Society.

The mayor said that the House Committee on Un-American Activities "would be the most likely body to hold such an inquiry, with the end result of seeking remedial legislation to control disruptive demonstrations."

Rep. Richard Ichord, D-Mo., chairman-designate of HCUA, said his staff was already discussing the desirability of a Los Angeles hearing. Said Ichord: "I look forward to seeing Mayor Yorty's report."

Yorty said his investigation revealed "specifically planned actions by dissident groups have deliberately fostered tension between black and white races in Los Angeles."

Yorty said his investigation revealed Communists "... have cleverly tied together, in juxtaposition, this country's war on poverty program with the war in Vietnam. They are telling the poor people of our country that they are being deprived only because of high Vietnam War expenditures."

"Groups within our civil rights movement are also being solicited by Communist-front organizations to harass the administration's efforts to prosecute the war in Vietnam."

"Again, the Communists are claiming that the high cost of the Vietnam war is prohibiting solving the economic problems of our minorities."

(Yorty's charges were borne out in a document entitled "Los Angeles. We Must Rule the Schools," a blueprint for a revolutionary takeover of Los Angeles schools issued by the Progressive Labor (Maoist) Party in Los Angeles.

Yorty cited an example of Communist involvement in racial causes as the party's support for a Black Congress rally held Feb. 18, 1968, at the Los Angeles Sports Arena to raise money for the Huey P. Newton Defense Fund.

(Newton, an official of the Black Panther Party, was convicted of manslaughter by an Alameda Superior Court jury in connection with the slaying of an Oakland policeman.)

Yorty said that Irving Sarnoff, identified by HCUA on April 3, 1959, as a member of the Communist Party District Council for Southern California, invited black militant Stokely Carmichael to appear at the rally.

At that rally, according to Yorty, Carmichael stated: "If this country burns down to the ground, we rejoice and we dance."

Records of the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum Commission show that the rent for the Sports Arena was paid in two cashier's checks. One was provided by Mrs. Helen Travis, 6324 Primrose Ave., Los Angeles, in the amount of $2000. Mrs. Travis was identified by HCUA as a Communist on July 31, 1963. She formerly wrote for the Communist newspaper, The Daily Worker, under the name of Maxine Levi, according to the HCUA report.

A $10,000 check for Sports Arena rent was provided by Wilshire Boulevard certified public accountant Kenneth W. Rottger. Rottger is a director of the Southern California Library for Social Studies and Research, 1510 W. Seventh St., which has as its stated purpose, "to accumulate and make available material on the subject of Marxism and related and associated subjects to all scholars and students interested in the subjects," according to the Yorty report.

Rottger denies being a Marxist and says he made his contribution to the Black Congress rally as an individual "for private reasons."

According to Yorty, seventeen persons at the Sports Arena rally have been linked by HCUA with "Communist Party organizations." They are:

Yorty said, 14 "known and identified Communist Party sympathizers were in evidence as agitators and demonstrators at the June 23, 1967, Century Plaza riot."

HCUA identified these as Sarnoff, Raphael Konigsberg, Pierre Mandel, Dorothy Healey, Barbara Nestor, Charles H. Mosley Jr., Harriet Blair, Guillermo Martinez, Paul Rosenstein, James Berland, Wheelidin, Leonard Potash, August Maymudes, and Marco Schneck.

Furthermore, said Yorty, he has evidence that the Black Panther and some other black militant groups, "lately have been advised and financially assisted by such Communist-supported groups as the Peace Action Council, the Los Angeles Committee for the Defense of the Bill of Rights, the Peace and Freedom Party, and the Communist Party itself."

He pointed out that Wheelidin had recently become editor of a "new black newspaper called the Los Angeles Voice."

Wheelidin on April 3, 1959, was identified by HCUA as a "high functionary in the Communist Party."

He is former staff writer for the then West Coast Communist newspaper, Daily People's World.

Yorty also quoted a radio interview with Donald Kalish, chairman of the Philosophy Department of UCLA, in which Kalish is alleged to have stated: "I am far to the left of the Communist Party. . . some of us, as I say, are much more extreme than them, (the Communists) and I'm one of them."

Yorty said recent demonstrations in Chicago, New York, and Los Angeles "have proved what the Communist Party can do to mobilize and manipulate the youthful and militant minorities and the civil rights and peace groups throughout the nation."

Yorty presented photographic evidence involving persons identified as Communists by HCUA at the following demonstrations in Los Angeles between 1966 and summer of this year:

Helen Travis participated in the "Resistance" march on the old Federal Building, Dec. 4, 1967; Wheelidin at the Freedom Now Committee march Feb. 12, 1966; Konigsberg at Century City during Vice President Humphrey's visit July 28, 1968; Mandel at the same demonstration.

Charles H. Mosley Jr., Century Plaza riot June 23, 1967.

Also, Dobbs at SDS' vigil for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at Pershing Square, April 8, 1968; Mrs. Kusnitz, Mrs. Healey and Bessie at Century City July 28, 1968; Martinez at a Peace Action Council demonstration at City Hall April 27, 1968; Sarnoff at Century City.

Also, Berland at PAC's City Hall demonstration April 27, 1968; Schneck at the Century Plaza riot, and Barbara Nestor at Century City July 28, 1968.

Also, Wilkinson, PAC demonstration against Vice President Humphrey at Hollywood Palladium July 10, 1968; Maymudes at HCUA hearing April 24, 1962; Mrs. Blair at the Palladium; Rosenstein at SDS Pershing Square vigil, April 8, 1968; Potash, Dow Chemical demonstration May 30, 1968.

Summing up, Yorty conceded there were wrongs "in our city and our nation and we must right them."

But, maintained the mayor, the Communists are not responsible for them and they do not want to see them righted.

"They seek only to exploit them for subversive purposes," he concluded.

Yorty Urges Probe of Campus Turmoil, Charges Red Influence

only 139-112 plus other ref* BY ERWIN BAKER
Times Staff Writer

Mayor Sam Yorty called for a federal investigation of disorders on university and college campuses, charging they are largely Communist inspired.

In a 17-page news release, he warned that high schools "are the next targets" as "part of a national and international Communist pattern seeking to promote urban violence and social turmoil."

Yorty's release was accompanied by 19 photographs which he said documented a "few of the activities of known and identified Communist Party members" during Los Angeles area demonstrations.

He did not identify the sources of the photographs, but ascribed much of the information in his release to records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and "intelligence sources."

Many of those pictured are long-time, well-known Communists or sympathizers.

Yorty said the House committee would be the "most likely body" to conduct the inquiry he asks, "with the end result of seeking remedial legislation to control disruptive demonstrations."

Particular attention, he said, should be given to the role of the Students for a Democratic Society "in initiating and agitating campus turmoil."

Members of the militant Black Students Union, he asserted, "appear to have been influenced in their recent action at San Fernando Valley State College by known political agitators who are members of SDS..." *100-66519

Yorty, quoting FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, described SDS as an organization with a "passionate desire to destroy, annihilate, to tear down... a new type of subversive, and their danger is great."

Approximately 22 SDS "campus - recognized" chapters exist in colleges and junior colleges in the Los Angeles area and "already, at least 10 Los Angeles high schools have chapters," the mayor said. He did not identify the schools.

Yorty charged that "specifically planned actions" by dissident groups, including SDS, have "deliberately fostered tension between the black and white races in Los Angeles, as exemplified by the recent San Fernando Valley State College unrest."

Many young people unwittingly are being "manipulated by Communists who know how to operate with well thought-out plans and under expert direction," he said.

"A full-scale federal inquiry into these matters is urgently needed to inform the American public of the extent of this Communist involvement into our academic institutions and to seek remedial legislation to control it," the mayor declared.

In outlining his thesis that state and national campus turmoil is part of an international Communist plan, Yorty declared SDS leaders have "made contacts" with Communist nations "through frequent foreign travels."

Yorty said Thomas Hayden, a former SDS president and "now one of its most prominent spokesmen," visited Hanoi in 1965 with "top Communist Party USA theoretician Herbert Aptheker" and also traveled to Moscow, Peking and Havana.

Intelligence sources, Yorty said, have noted

"... that Communist and Trotskyite Communist Party members 'abound' at SDS conventions."

I. Subject: Report of New Leftist Activity and Events Occurring in Los Angeles on May 7, 1971

II. Information Concerning:

1) "New Leftist" activity and events continue to occur in Los Angeles on a regular basis. The term New Leftist is used only as a general identifying word denoting a type of action. Not all activity described or occurring is, however, necessarily part of the New Left. Much of it is Old Leftist. b6 b7C

2) Activists of the Left are currently involved in promoting disorder at San Fernando Valley State College and the surrounding area. News reports refer to the demonstrators as students. Investigation reveals that not all of the marchers are students at SFVSC or anywhere else. Some of the marchers are regulars of the street action movement. One marcher, [redacted] manages to make 96% of all demonstrations. Other protestors are part of the rotating-like set of protestors from the Peace Action Council force. One marcher, [redacted] manages to be present at SFVSC one day and at LACC the next day. Some persons believe that the protests at VSC could be the beginning of the old S.D.S.-C.P. chaos that spread in the school b6 in 1968-1969. [redacted] is a so-called former Party member who was then b7C active in C.P. and S.D.S. [redacted] former Party status is probably not b7D true. The Party appears to have a mechanism in which a known Party member goes through the motions of dropping out of the Party, and does in fact drop out of certain activity, but continues to secretly be in the Party and carry out missions. [redacted] is no stranger to covert activity. According

[redacted] in [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] Since the [redacted]
[redacted] on [redacted] including his [redacted] b7E

3) On 5/7/71 at the First Unitarian Churches Channing Hall at 8,00 P.M. the Fellowship for Social Justice presented as Symposium on the Mideast Conflict. The FSJ is a Communist Party Front Group. The FSJ is run by [redacted] a C.P. security officer, if you can call this crip that b6 b7C [redacted] was the [redacted] is supposed to speak at a church service soon on the evils of the FBI. The Party's security force on hand had as muscle 3 Negro males, two old and one young. These Party muscle men, some carry canes, would not be effective against ex-Green Berets or well trained paramilitarists. Speakers included [redacted] of the Party. JAY or JACOB BENDER of the Jewish Radical Comm., Atty. [redacted] of the Radical Zionist Alliance. [redacted] area of operations is LACC. [redacted] is a Marxist Socialist who favors the State of Israel. A donation of a dollar was collected by [redacted]

The Jewish Radical Comm. passed out a leaflet announcing an upcoming meeting at the Ashgrove on May 16, 1971. The Ashgrove is a facility which could be going out of business. The owner, [redacted] recently touched off a labor strike and conflict when he gave a female a so-called karate kick. [redacted] has been taking karate lessons with a group that learns from Castroite Comrade [redacted] is not a karate expert, but only a beginning learner. A real karateman would not do what he did.

4) Some of the people attending this may have come late. If they did, it could be because they were watching the new LES CRANE show on channel 28, called "Rapping Up the Week." CRANE's guests on this 7.30--8.30 show on Friday night on 5/7/71 included [redacted] the D.A. in Orange County, ALAN CRANSTON, [redacted]

CRANE's most interesting guests probably are [redacted] and [redacted]. [redacted] is one of the few real "insiders" of the street action movement. His contacts range from CPUSA to Chairman [redacted] himself. [redacted] may also have contacts if not good information on the Round Table Organization, which partly acts to keep the s/a/m to do the things that can help the top international bankers. [redacted] on the other hand, is the top man in the L.A. County Birch Society, and is officially the Society's Public Relations Director for the West Coast. [redacted] was real cool on this show. He knows something about [redacted] insider actions, as does [redacted] an ex-ADA type Liberal who has written about [redacted] for the Birch Society. [redacted] sat and mostly listened while the others talked. [redacted] called for the abolition of private property. [redacted] is the Valley [redacted], and is active in Valley Peace Center. [redacted] did talk when the subject of Gov. REAGAN not paying his taxes came up. [redacted] stated that REAGAN's case of not paying his state income taxes, however legally, is child's play. He pointed out that Gov. NELSON ROCKEFELLER only paid about $700 in taxes (federal) about two years ago. [redacted] stated that the super-rich write their own laws so that the middle class will have to pay mostly while the rich will not. [redacted] blamed this on the progressive income tax laws. [redacted] stated that the progressive income tax was a Marxist action. [redacted] agreed that the Insiders of international finance had patterned it off of Marxist activity and writings. [redacted] and [redacted] agreed that the income tax should go, be done away with, since it is unfair to the middle and poor classes. [redacted] said that this was a misuse of Marxism in so many words, and [redacted] stopped or was stopped right there. [redacted] stated that he was, in so many words, impressed with the Birchers concentration on Marxism and that "I might even join the John Birch Society." [redacted] may have half meant this, or he may have been trying to play the Far Right against the Near Right Establishment-leaning types CRANE also had on. [redacted] also plugged the NAKED CAPITALIST by former special agent for the FBI W. CLEON SKOUSEN. Maybe [redacted] gave [redacted] a copy of it and his card in case [redacted] was serious. [redacted] and [redacted] and SKOUSEN, and New Leftists all agree that the Bankers are running America. The banking families set up dynasties that create central banks in nations, leaving one family controlling more than one country, if they are like [redacted]. The other Banks, like Bank of America, are involved in decision making. Both [redacted] and [redacted] were talking about giving power to the people instead of to the unelected and ultrarich who spend money but pay little taxes.
